IMPORTANT A. S. OF E. MEETINGS.

Tobacco Growers At Hardinsburg Favor Reduction Of Acreage---Great Rally At Hawesville---Call Made For Joint Convention Here Next Saturday.

Several hundred tobacco growers met in the courthouse at Hardinsburg Saturday for the purpose of compiling the organization of the Breckencridge county union of the American Society of Equity, in pursuance to a call made by Deputy President E. B. Oglesby of this city. When this object of the meeting was accomplished, several questions of general and local interest were considered. Nothing definite was done, however, except the adoption of a resolution to curtail the acreage of the 1905 crop of tobacco twenty-five per cent. Several proposed plans for holding the present crop by the warehouse plan were not favorably received by the convention. The courthouse was literally full, 519 persons leaving the building, according to the statement of one man who counted them.

Twenty local unions of the A. S. of E. with a membership of about four hundred, were represented as follows:

Hardinsburg No. 1—Silas and Jas. Miller.

Hardinsburg No. 2—Kit Delorrette and Matt Shrawwater.

Hardinsburg No. 3—Eli Meador and Solis Hobbs.

Hardinsburg No. 4—Caleb Bell and C. E. Robbins.

Hardinsburg No. 5—Milt Basham and D. S. Miller.

Kirk No. 1—Chas. Miller and Tom Sherran.

McQuady No. 1—Wm. Lyons and Chas. Lyons.

Harned No. 1—W. O. Butler.

Cloverport No. 1—W. O. Puchprey.

Cloverport No. 3—Geo. Harris.

Cloverport No. 3—Henry Waggoner and John Hazell.

Cloverport No. 4—Fladgate Carter.

Axtel No. 1—H. T. Matthews.

Tarfork No. 2—J. A. Osborne.

Beverlyville No. 1—Dr. P. W. Foote.

Mattigging No. 1—A. B. Orum and W. B. Tani.

Mattigging No. 2—W. N. Pate and Wm. Weise.

Mattigging No. 3—Geo. Pate and G. N. Tani.

Tarfork No. 1—O. W. Rice.

West View—Henry Skillman and W. A. Skillman.

President Granville Wilson, Secretary Jos. H. Pile and Treasurer Miller, were elected in January, were retained as the officers of the county union.

The program which had been arranged for the meeting, with one exception, was not taken up, a result of the time being passed to devote the time to deciding on the best plan to hold the present crop of tobacco for better prices. This question itself was turned into the question of curtailing the acreage. Dr. P. W. Foote read an interesting paper on "What should the farmer do in relation to tobacco?" this being the only part of the program submitted by the county officers that was taken up.

Among the decisions on questions of general interest, the delegates voted favorably for the adoption of a pure food law, the abolition of gambling in farm products, and the building of good roads (if by the government), and unfavorably on an increase in the President's salary.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session, W. S. Ball read a letter from the manager of the Equity warehouse at Owensboro saying that he would be glad to make some arrangements with the farmers of Breckencridge county to hold their tobacco for them.

J. W. Miller was opposed to the arrangements. He said he would just as soon put his tobacco into the hands of the American Tobacco company as the Louisville Warehouse Co., which is financing the Equity warehouse at Owensboro, and that he would rather sell to a home buyer.

Kit Delorrette said a warehouse man had told him that he had no hope of farmers' tobacco and that his advice was for farmers to hold their tobacco at home.

W. S. Ball moved that a committee be appointed to decide on the best plan for the farmers to hold their tobacco at home, and on the simplest and most practical way to get money advanced on tobacco. This motion did not carry.

Mr. Oglesby thought the best way for the farmers to hold their tobacco is at home.

J. W. Miller said he was not in favor of conferring with the trusts, that the only remedy is to reduce the size of the crop.

Hardin Walker's idea is to get all the farmers organized the first thing. There are a third or fourth of the farmers out of the organization who control it to a great extent by taking advantage of the organization. When the farmer has complete control of his own business he can get at the trust later.

Mr. Wilson was of the opinion that each local union should take care of the members of the union who are not able to take care of themselves in the matter of holding their tobacco.

Albert Orum was not in favor of the local union taking charge of the selling because he didn't think the plan would work.

W. S. Ball offered a resolution calling for a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the acreage. The resolution received the unanimous vote of the farmers present but only a two-thirds vote of the delegates from the various local unions.

During the consideration of this a man present was heard to remark that Lexington held a convention several years ago and adopted a resolution to reduce the acreage, the result being the biggest crop ever raised.

Before the meeting adjourned, W. S. Ball was appointed a delegate to the convention to be held at Greenville on March 17 and 18, when an effort will be made to have the acreage in the entire dark tobacco district reduced.

Hancock Meeting.

Hawesville, Ky., March 14.—The greatest farmer demonstration or demonstration of any kind ever held here was the A. S. of E. turnout here today. Farmers to the number of 1,200, many of them in large wagons, riggers, floats and others in a variety of vehicles and on horseback, entered town at 10 o'clock, headed by the Hawesville brass band, which had gone out in a band wagon to meet them, and marched through the principal streets. The business transaction consisted in the appointment of five delegates to attend the tobacco growers' meeting to be held at Greenville on March 17 and 18 and the passing of a resolution to stand firm for the Lynchburg prices.

Special Meeting.

Cloverport, Ky., March 13, 1905. Every local union of the A. S. of E. in Breckencridge and Hancock counties is urgently requested to send a delegate to a meeting to be held in this city at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 18, for the purpose of forming some warehouse plan to assist the tobacco growers of both counties to hold their tobacco for better prices. This is the only question that will be discussed at this meeting. This call for a special meeting is made after due consideration and consultation with officers, because it is deemed necessary that the all important question of how best we hold the present crop be settled as soon as possible. E. W. Higley, Dept. Pres.

D. H. Riddage came down from Louisville Wednesday.

KIRMSSE ENJOYED.

The holidays given at O'Leary Hall Monday evening, for the benefit of the public school library, by about seventy-five children and young ladies, under the direction of Mrs. Walker, of New York, was thoroughly enjoyed by an audience of several hundred, every seat in the hall being occupied. To do justice to a write-up to the entertainment it would be necessary to tell of the merits of many acts, and for this we have not the space.

TWO CHURCHES GET 62 NEW ADDITIONS.

Forty-Four More Methodists And Eighteen Baptists One Result of Rev. Newsum's Great Sermons.

Forty-four persons have united with the Methodist church and eighteen are candidates for baptism at the Baptist church as one result of the greatest religious revival Cloverport has known in years.

The revival came to a close last Friday evening, Rev. J. T. Newsum, of Marlinton, Tenn., who did the preaching, leaving Saturday morning for Hawesville, to engage in similar work. The majority of the persons who have given their names for membership in the Methodist church, were received into the church on Friday evening by Rev. Newsum, and the remaining number of the forty-four on Sunday by Rev. King. Those who have united with the Baptist church, were baptized next Sunday.

The following persons have united with the Methodist church: Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. Allen Kingsbury, Mrs. Clara Kuster, Mrs. Mary Parsons, Mrs. George Agnew, Daisy Crist, Marie Pine, Emile Jennings, Annie Board, Eliza Tucker, Esther Jackson, Carrie Tucker, Lillie Harper, Frances Sawyer, Una May Bruns, May Berry, Lucie Adams, Ole Board, Virginia Tucker, Rosa Agnew, Verla Waulken, Sazette Sawyer, Corneila Allen and Clara Newton; Dr. R. L. Newsum, J. W. Tatum, H. H. Kuffert, Harry Newsum, Frank Hasbun, Tom Terry, Harold Murray, W. E. Adams, Joe Graham, Fred Adams, Jackie Weatherholt, Wm. White, Mike Tucker, Horace Tucker and Harvey Preston.

The following persons will be baptized at the Baptist church next Sunday: Misses Edith, Elvora, Myra Tucker, Anita Perkins, Amy Pate, Ella Wilson, Maude Hawkins, Dorie Matheny, Lizzie Dean and Hazel Holder; Joseph Allen, J. L. Patterson, Raymond Pate, Mark Miller, Ad Frazier, Harry Weatherholt, Feltie Jordan, Bernard Morrison and Gilbert Eckridge.

Many good results, of a general nature, of the revival were enumerated in the last two issues of the News, but there are some that have become apparent only during the past week. One of the most important of these is the increase in membership and attendance of the Methodist and Baptist Sunday-schools, there being about a half more pupils present Sunday at the former church and a third more at the latter. Two other results are increased church going and a stronger fraternal feeling between the members of the different churches of the town. The organization of an Epworth League at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, is another excellent result. The League was organized with thirty members. The officers, who were elected Sunday afternoon, will be installed next Sunday afternoon, the time of the first official meeting of the League.

Rev. Newsum's coming to Cloverport meant a great thing for the town and there was much regret at his departure. At Hawesville he has been given a rousing welcome and he will continue his good work there for about two weeks.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Bilelessness." Be at Short & Haynes, druggists.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

All three of the Equity warehouses today had all the tobacco they could possibly handle. At the Wood & Turpin factory new benches had to be made to receive it. The success of the tobacco movement is now assured. —Friday's Owensboro Inquirer.

FARMERS HOLDING.

Washington, March 10.—According to the crop report issued by the agricultural department, the percentage of wheat remaining in the hands of the farmers is 20.1 per cent., or 111,000,000 bushels; corn, 35.7 per cent., or 554,000,000 bushels; oats, 35.8 per cent., or 317,000,000 bushels.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

Contractor J. M. Lewis has not begun work yet on the ice factory to be operated by the Cloverport Water, Light & Ice company. Work was to have begun about the first of the month but it has been necessary to delay the erection of the building until the completion of a well for water for the manufacture of ice, which the company is planning to have put down this week.

is Dragged By Street Car And His Leg Is Badly Fractured.

Irvington, Ky., March 14.—(Special.)—Friends of D. C. Herndon, formerly of Steele county, but now of Chicago, will regret to learn of the accident which befell him while in the act of boarding an electric car in that city. He, with a number of Kentucky friends, had just completed a birthday celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pusey, and he was in the act of boarding a horse-drawn car to return to his hotel, when his attention became directed in an opposite way from an approaching car, which caught him and dragged him the length of the car, causing a compound fracture of the leg and several bruises, but not considered serious. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital, where he will have every attention necessary.

PUSHING ORGANIZATION.

W. S. Ball and Henry Delt Moore, of Hardinsburg, as announced last week, will speak at Chenault on Saturday, March 18, in interest of the American Society of Equity. On the completion of their talks they will organize a local union of the A. S. of E. at Chenault. The farmers in this part of the county are not organized as in the western, central and southern portions. The organization is being steadily pushed by deputy presidents and enthusiastic members of the A. S. of E. in the hope that every part of the county will soon be as thoroughly organized as Hancock county.

POSTPONED A WEEK.

Federal court, by order of Judge Evans, was postponed last week from March 13 to March 20, on account of the illness of his wife.

WHERE IS JNO. JOHNSON?

Negro Who Was Fired at Friday By Marshal Still Missing.

John Johnson, the work-train negro who was shot at by Marshal DeHaven last Friday night while he was making his escape just after being arrested, is still at large and nobody seems to know where he is.

Marshal DeHaven arrested Johnson for "toting" a gun and had reached the jail with his prisoner when he made his escape. While Marshal DeHaven was unlocking the door, Johnson hit him in the face and then broke and ran up a railroad street. The unexpected blow stunned Marshal DeHaven and caused him to drop his revolver, but he quickly picked it up and gave chase, firing several times at Johnson but without effect. It was very dark and the negro was soon out of sight, being seen last as he was going toward Clover creek.

Irvin O'Brien, who was crossing the Clover creek bridge, said he heard some one struggling in the water up the stream and crying out as though in distress, and on investigation later, he found nothing but some fresh tracks on the bank. This has led a few to believe that Johnson ran into the creek and was drowned. It is very probable that he caught a night freight train and left town.

SOMETHING DOING IN THE COUNTRY.

What Missouri Gals Like

John (Mo.) Gibe: A young man bearing the earmarks of an "agriculturist" walked into a Main street grocery last evening and called for a bottle of vanilla extract. Before opening the door to step back into the street he pulled the cork poured a few drops of the flavoring on his handkerchief, and as he placed the bottle in his vest pocket, remarked to the clerk: "If there is anything Missouri gals like better than chewing gum, it's perfumery."

A Note of Warning.

Montgomery (Wis.) Times: This is to notify any and all persons whatsoever that I am through with my wife for good, and will pay no bills that she runs, and will never want her to darken my door again. Take notice all men that I will not be responsible, as she has left me, and also I wish to warn all men against her, because she would give any man a whole lot of trouble.

Olat Crystall.

Revising the News.

Blanchard correspondent Forest (Ohio) Review: I wish to rectify the mistake that appeared in these items two weeks ago. The week mentioned was the week before. The two ladies spent a week with the parties mentioned, and Mr. Moore and Brown spent one evening and Miss Jennie Clemens is a caller every day at their home to buy milk.

Sorry for Frank.

Friars Point (Miss.) Cochran: We did feel sorry for Frank Reid during this cold snap. He only had two undershirts, we are told; he had sold his overcoat; Jeff, the porter, was wearing one of his undershirts, and Jerry, the pointer dog, had on the other, and as both Jeff and Jerry were out, Frank had to stay in his room by the fire.

The Court Bowed Down.

Atchison Globe: Myra McHenry, the Wichita jail snapper, is before the judge in court and then boasted of it. He would have boiled a man in oil for the offense, but all he did to the woman was to mildly request her to show more respect. A real vicious woman has the world blinded.

Birthday Party in Kansas.

Card in Atchison Globe: We wish to thank the friends who were so kind to us recently upon the birth of our only. The doctor, particularly, was kind, and we feel under lasting obligations to the two neighbor women who stayed up with us all night. Lon Cordell and wife.

A Brand From the Burning.

Friars Point (Miss.) Cochran: Early Wednesday morning a fire broke out on the east side at Cohoma and wiped out everything except the Chinaman, whom the insurance companies had refused.

Fell From the Wagon.

Dexter (Iowa) Sentinel: Harry Gile had a wagon to run over his leg a little over a week ago. It did not hurt him at first, but he took cold on the bruise, and has been laid up ever since.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFOR'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

Because the liver is neglected people suffer with constipation, biliousness, headaches and fevers. Colds attack the lungs and contagious diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown.

Thedford's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a strong and drastic drug, but a mild and powerful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a mere child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work regularly, the poisonous solids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and violent contagion results.

Timely treatment with Thedford's Black-Draught removes the dangerous which lurk in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the occurrence of Bright's disease, for which disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of Thedford's Black-Draught.

New Species of Gentleman.

Iowa City (Iowa) Daily News: Last night a Black leather gentleman's pocket-book, containing some money, probably on Clinton street.

A Hello Blunder.

Hancock (Md.) Star: A man telephoned to Spangler's on Thursday for some burgundy, and they sent him a lumpy.

RECOGNIZES BURGLAR.

Trailer, Ky. March 11.—A C. Mills, two conductors a store two miles distant on the Hartford road, detected a burglar in the act of entering his place of business. For some time he had been visited by an unknown thief, who, the week previous, and entered the store through a window and secured a quantity of goods. Mr. Mills Saturday announced to his family that he would attend lodge meeting, but instead stationed himself inside the store near the door, expecting the burglar to enter during the previous occasion. If he came, but the intruder was armed with a key, and as he opened the door discovered the owner on guard. Mr. Mills was not armed, but as the burglar ran gave pursuit until the latter escaped in a large field. The storekeeper recognized the party, but refused to divulge his name.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Eoney Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, for these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure. Dyppepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Diseases by short & Haynes, druggists, at 50c a bottle.

CHANGE OPPOSED.

The proposal to establish a rural mail route out of this city to Tolpport will meet with some opposition. A petition is being circulated against the establishment of a route and the postoffice department will be asked not to grant it. Opposition is offered on the ground that mail will reach farmers in the vicinity of Tolpport twenty-four hours later than by the present system. Most of the mail for Tolpport is now carried to the Henderson Route to Cloverport, where it is ferried over—Tell City Journal.

Mr. J. M. Allen.

109 E. Jacob Street, Louisville, Ky., says: "My wife has for some time been troubled with rough hands and feet. After using about one-half bottle of Par camph the trouble has disappeared, much to her satisfaction. I used it also on my own feet, tender from much walking, and it gave me great relief." Par camph makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

The Boiling Point.

Why is it that in boiling in an open vessel such liquids as water, etc., water only escapes in steam, while the strength remains, while in boiling in a retort, as in a still, the strength passes away in steam, and in distilling salt or impure water only the pure water passes off in the steam? This is because of a difference in the boiling points in the fluids and that under the increased pressure of a retort the boiling point is higher than that of water in the open air at the ordinary pressure of the atmosphere. If ether had a higher boiling point than water when the water boils at 100 degrees it takes some little ether to do mechanically. On the contrary, if alcohol were present before the boiling point of water were reached most of the spirits would have passed away. If the increased pressure of the retort allows by the boiling point of the fluids therein being reached, suppose the heat to be great enough, they will be changed to vapor and pass away, whatever they be.

Boyle O'Reilly's Swordsmanship.

Boyle O'Reilly was a skilled swordsman. He told me this, when I was in the city to this country he thought he would manifest himself by giving lessons in broadsword, single stick and fells, and I used to give him great pleasure to put a foil in my hands and say to me—for I professed to know nothing of it—"Ned, on guard! Now, run me through. Thrust me anywhere you can. Kill me if you can." And then, with a smile upon his face, he would ward off my lunges until suiting his purpose he would send my sword flying across the room. Often when I excused him he would say to me, "Ned, take that stick and cut me down." He wanted no play about it. He wanted an earnest fight, and, complying with my wish, he would often rush at him with a stout stick in my hand only to have him laughingly reveal my attack and these affairs generally wound up by his giving me a lesson in the shoulders that nearly broke me in two. —Donahoe's Magazine.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S INAUGURATION ADDRESS.

The following is the address made by Theodore Roosevelt on taking the oath of office for his second and last term:

"My Fellow Citizens: No people on earth have more cause to be thankful than ours, and this is said reverently, in no spirit of boastfulness in our own strength, but with gratitude to our God for the blessings which have been bestowed upon us with the conditions which have enabled us to achieve so large a measure of well-being and of happiness. To us as a people it has been granted to lay the foundation for our national life on a new continent. We are the heirs of the ages and yet we have had to pay for the penalties which in old countries are exacted by the dead hand of a bygone civilization. We have not been called to fight for our existence against any alien race; yet our life has been called for the vigor and effort without which the meiler and harder virtues wither away. Under such conditions it would be our own fault if we failed; and the success which we have had in the past, the success which we confidently believe the future will bring should cause us no feeling of vain glory but rather a deep and abiding realization of all which life has offered us; a full acknowledgment of the responsibility which is ours and a fixed determination to show that under a free government a mighty people can thrive best, alike as regards the things of the body and the things of the soul.

"Much has been given to us, and much will rightly be expected from us. We have duties to others and duties to ourselves, and we can shrink neither. We have become a great nation, forced by the tact of its greatness into relations with the other nations of the earth; and we must behave as becomens a people with such responsibilities. Toward all other nations, large and small, our attitude must be one of cordial and sincere friendship. We must show not only in our words but in our deeds that we are earnestly desirous of securing their good will by acting toward them in a spirit of just and generous recognition of all their rights. But justice and generosity in a nation, as in an individual, count most when shown not by the weak but refrain from wronging others, we must be no less insistent that we are not wronged ourselves. We wish peace, but we wish the peace of justice, the peace of righteousness. We wish it because we think it is right and not because we are afraid. No weak nation that acts manfully and justly should ever have cause to fear us, and no strong power should ever be able to single us out as a subject for its insolent aggression.

"Our relations with the other powers of the world are important; but still more important are our relations among ourselves. Such growth in wealth, in population and in power as this nation has seen during the century and a quarter of its national life is inevitably accompanied by a like growth in the problems which are ever before every nation that rises to greatness. Power invariably means both responsibility and danger. Our forefathers faced certain perils which we have outgrown. We now face their perils, the very existence of which it was impossible that they should foresee. Modern life is both complex and intense, and the tremendous changes wrought by the extraordinary industrial development of the last half century are felt in every fiber of our social and political being.

"Never before have men tried so vast and formidable an experiment as that of administering the affairs of a continent under the form of a democratic republic. The conditions which have held for our marvelous material well-being, which have developed to a very high degree our energy, self-reliance, and individual initiative, have also brought the care and anxiety inseparable from the accumulation of great wealth in industrial centers. Upon the success of our experiment much depends; not only as regards our own welfare, but as regards the welfare of mankind. If we fail, the cause of free self-government throughout the world will rock to its foundations; and therefore our responsibility is heavy to ourselves to the world as is to-day, and to the generations yet unborn.

"There is no good reason why we should fear the future, but there is every reason why we should fear it seriously, neither hiding from ourselves the gravity of the problems before us nor fear to approach these problems with the unflinching, unflinching purpose to solve them aright.

"Yet, after all, though the problems are great, though the tasks set before our fathers who founded and preserved this republic, the spirit in which these tasks must be undertaken and these problems faced, if our duty is to be done, remains essentially unchanged. We know that self-government is difficult. We know that no people need such high traits of character as that people which seeks to govern its affairs aright through the freely expressed will of the free men who compose it.

"But we have faith that we shall not prove false to the memories of the men of the mighty past. They did their work; they left us the splendid heritage we now enjoy. We in our turn have assumed confidence that we shall be able to leave this heritage unswayed and enlarged to our children and our children's children. To do so, we must show, not merely in great crises, but in the every-day affairs of life, the qualities of practical intelligence, of courage, of hardihood and endurance, and also all the power of devotion to a lofty ideal, which made great the men who founded this republic in the days of Washington, which made great the men who preserved this republic in the days of Abraham Lincoln."

Mr. Tracwell is a lawyer at Columbus, Kansas. He was raised at Corydon, Ind.

THOUGHTS.

I see in this world two heaps—one of human happiness and one of misery; now if I can take but the smallest bit from the second heap and add it to the first, I carry a point. If, as I go home, a child has dropped a half-penny, and by giving it another I can wipe away its tears, I feel that I have done something.—John Newton.

The ground hog will let up on the weather tomorrow.

Never give a hair pin to your wife that you picked up on the sidewalk.

There is sound hope for any man who earnestly works and keeps on working.

Gen. JOLLY is a great admirer of Roosevelt. He says he is the greatest man in America.

BROTHER NEWCOM has closed his meeting and gone from among us, but his words are still buzzing in the ears of many of us.

THERE is a very important meeting for the farmers called in this town for next Saturday. Every farmer who has a crop of tobacco should be present.

They have no use for Commis-sioner Garfield in Kansas since his report on the beef trust. People in Kentucky are not very well pleased with that report either.

THE more President Roosevelt demonstrates that he is a patriot before he is a partisan, the firmer becomes his hold on the hearts of his countrymen and the fainter becomes the lingering trace of sectional animosity.—Atlanta Constitution.

SHERMAN BAILL is developing into a great speaker. His speech before the body of farmers at Hardinsburg last Saturday came in the way of a surprise to many. It showed that he had given the cause of the farmer much thought and study. It was along right lines, good, wholesome advice, and it is to be hoped the farmers will heed it.

Our guessing contest closes next Wednesday, March 22. Only a little time left now in which to make your guess, so get in line. Send us your dollar and your guess. It will be your last chance. No more guessing contests, says the government. Just sit down and figure a little and think a little and there's no telling what you may strike. We would like to see that $10,000 come to some of the News subscribers. It's there for them if they will only go after it. Act now; don't put it off.

THE accident to our young friend D. C. Herndon in Chicago the other day reminds us that it is never safe to step from a moving train. There is always danger in it. And where the danger comes in is in stepping and looking in the opposite direction from the way the train is moving. Never step face backward but face forward if you have to step. Our eyes were put in the front of our head to look forward. It is contrary to nature to look backward. There is safety and progress in facing forward and danger and death in facing backward. It is always safe to look before you leap.

MR. BRASHEAR, buyer for the American Tobacco Co., in this town, gave a farmer and a member of the A. S. of E. some good advice the other day. He said to the man that if he was a member of the organization and had pledged his crop that he ought to stand by his agreement. "We don't cure," said Mr. Brashear, "to buy any man's tobacco who has pledged it to another. When we make a contract with a man for his crop and he signs our contract we expect him to stand by it and bring us his tobacco." Mr. Brashear is right. When a farmer or any other man makes a contract he ought to stand by it.

Our old friend, Pete Lyons, is a candidate for jailer, subject to the action of the Democratic convention which convenes at Hardinsburg, Saturday, April 3. His announcement appears elsewhere. If loyalty to the Democratic party goes for anything, Pete ought to have the nomination. For twenty-five years no man in this county has been more faithful and loyal to his party than Pete Lyons. He has given up his time and his money to help the other fellow and his party. He has never held office and is entitled to some recognition at the hands of his party. He needs the office. He is not near as young as he once was, but his age is no drawback when it comes to taking care of the jail and its inmates. He will make a strong candidate before the people, having friends in both parties who will support him heartily. He deserves the nomination and ought to have it and we hope he will get it.

We call attention to an article clipped from the Courier-Journal regarding the raising of tomatoes up around Jeffersonville, Ind. This clipping was sent us by Mr. L. J. Irwin, G. P. A., of the Henderson Route, who is always on the alert for something that will help the patrons of his road. He was largely instrumental in bringing the canning factory to this town and is still ready and willing to do all he can to stimulate our industries. What has been done up around Jeffersonville can be done here. There is room here for more factories, but the factories can't run without they get help from the farmers. Here's a chance for every farmer who lives in ten miles of this place to reduce his crop of tobacco and plant tomatoes. Tomatoes pay better than tobacco—so those who have raised them say. Then why fool with the tobacco trust? As President Wilson of the A. S. of E. says, get to raising something else besides tobacco and then you won't be dependent on the tobacco trust or any other trust. Trust something else besides tobacco. At will pay to do it. You don't have to raise tobacco in this country. Just quit raising it for a year and you'll have the Tobacco Trust in the biggest hole it was ever in. It will not only be willing to pay "three eights" but three tens or any old price to get tobacco.

Here's a bit of advice to our Democratic friends. They can take it or reject it, just as they please. They are looking around for a good man to represent this county in the next legislature. If it's a good man they want, we suggest the name of W. H. Bowmer, of this town. He's known either personally or by reputation to every man in the county. He's a man among men and his presence in the legislature would be a credit to any party or any community. He's a self-made man. He came up from the farm. He has plowed and wore tow-line breeches and brogan shoes and has carried many a turn of corn to the mill on horse-back just like other farm boys. He left the farm and "took up" a school and in this way earned his first dollar. After teaching school for a while he went to Fordville and got his first experience in the dry goods business under old man Jack Haynes, away back in the fifties. Then he came to Cloverport and got a position with the old firm of Hamblenton, Skillman & Co., and finally a partnership in the firm. When this firm dissolved he went in business for himself and everybody knows he made a success and made it honestly and by hard work, economy and close attention to business. He has been closely identified with the business of this town for forty-five years. He has done his part as much as any man for its upbuilding. He's retired now and has leisure. He has never sought public favor or distinction, and is not doing it now. Not a word from him has ever come to us that he desires the place or that he would accept it if nominated. We are inclined to believe, however, that if called by the people, his patriotism and love of country would not allow him to reject the honor. Now let the Democrats nominate him and then let the Republicans endorse him and the whole people elect him. Here's a chance for the leaders of both parties to do the square thing and the right thing. Will they do it?

The Lower Animals.
Animals have been perceptions—lower in many respects than our own—but they form no conceptions, have no power of comparing one thing with another. They live entirely in and through their senses. To all that inner world of reflection, imagination, comparison, reason, they are strangers. They never return upon themselves in thought. They have sense memory, sense intelligence, and they profit in many ways by experience, but they have not soul memory or rational intelligence. All the fundamental emotions and appetites men and the lower animals share in common, such as fear, anger, love, hunger, jealousy, cunning, pride, curiosity, play, but the world of thought and thought experience and the emotions that go with it belong to man alone. It is as if the psychic world were divided into two planes, one above the other, the plane of sense and the plane of spirit. In the plane of sense live the lower animals, only now and then just breaking for a moment into the higher plane. In the world of sense man is immersed. This is his start and foundation, but he rises into the plane of spirit, and here lives his proper life. He is emancipated from sense in a way that beasts are not.

The Everglades.
The climate of the Everglades of Florida is almost faultless. It is singularly equable, showing no extremes of heat and cold and not subject to sudden change. Even a "norther," coming out of the region of ice and snow, is soon softened to milder temperature, and the heat of summer is made genial, though the mercury may be well up in the eighties, by the cooled air which is everywhere in the glades. The year is divided into the dry and rainy seasons. The latter may be roughly approximated as including June and September, although well in the glades sudden light showers in limited areas are likely at any season, and in the autumn a high degree of humidity is constant. A lifetime might be spent in the region and no sign of malaria ever be discovered. Pure air that moves in gentle breezes over a vast expanse of pure water is the perfect assurance of health, as evidenced in the fine physique, splendid coloring and athletic vigor of the Seminoles, who have a monopoly of as fine a climate as there is on earth.—Century.

ers. But if you dislike the work turn to anything else but teaching. We cannot succeed ever in what we hate. Bad teachers, when we find them, are persons who dislike their work. They are like the young girl in the country town who said to one of her friends: "Yes, I am going to take up teaching."

"The friend looked amazed. 'You?' she exclaimed. 'You a schoolteacher? Why, I'd rather marry a widower with blue children.'"
"So would I," said the other. "But where is the widower?"—New York Tribune.

Origin of the Banjo.
In the early part of the nineteenth century in the town of Banjomao, on the island of Java, a negro native determined to construct a musical instrument for his own use. Taking a clothes box and bending it with a goat-skin, he ran a handle through it, and, adapting violin strings tuned to the first, third, fifth and eighth notes of an octave, he christened it a banjo, from the first two syllables of his native town. Gradual improvements on this rough and ready instrument were made, and about the middle of the century it crossed the Atlantic and, though unpopular in London at first, soon became well liked.—London Chronicle.

"Lanah While You Can."
Hogg left Elton in 1883, about which time he met Hattie for a memorable moment. He had run into a room where his sister was painting under Ruskin's eye. He did not notice Hattie, but went to his sister and made some laudatory remark to her. "You had better laugh while you can," said Ruskin, "for every year you live you will become more and more miserable!"—From "Life of Quaint Hogg."

Interpolate Tea Drinking.
In this age of mental tension, high pressure and overstrain tea is felt to be doing much to overwork our innate ashyms. There can be little doubt that tea drinking is a form of interpolate in these days, a national and female intoxication second only to that of strong drink and in some respects perhaps even more injurious.—Family Doctor.

Connected.
Lyles—Did you ever come across a more connected fellow than Bulger? They say he is an atheist, and I believe he is. Bulger—I wouldn't like to go so far as that, but I know that he doesn't recognize the existence of a superior being.—Town and Country.

A Woman Suggestion.
"You know," said Miss Kreech after her solo, "I intend to go abroad to finish my musical education."
"Why not finish it right now?" suggested Miss Cullley, "and save the expense?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

For Instance.
"Lucy," asked the teacher, "what is the meaning of 'sacred'?"
"It means short, man, man."
"A rabbit has a sacred tail!"—Chicago Tribune.

BIG TOMATO DISTRICT.

One of the most promising industries in Southern Indiana is that of tomato raising, and hundreds of acres of land are devoted to the culture of the crop annually. Within thirty miles of Jeffersonville there are thirteen canning factories, all of which have

How To Get Rich.

The sensation created by James Vick's remarkable book, "My Reason," led a representative of the National Bank to interview the famous Rochester seedman at his Philadelphia office.

"The average man," he said, "rarely obtains more than a bare living in return for his life-long grinding toil. This book contains information which may bring him independence."

"Yes, it's true I will give the book away. It will especially interest those who have saved a little money, telling how they may become wealthy. I have only a limited number of books, but I will gladly send a copy to your friends without charge. My object in publishing the book was not to make a profit from its sale."

Our readers desiring a copy of this book should write at once to James Vick, 725 Land Title Building, Philadelphia, Pa. It is attractive, interesting, profitable.

BEN-HUR IN LOUISVILLE.

Arranged in all its splendor, "Ben-Hur" will inaugurate a week of engagement at Macaney's Theatre, Louisville, on Monday evening, March 30th. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Of all the spectacular productions of modern times, none has been credited with so long a run of prosperity as this great and popular dramatic romance.

"Ben-Hur" is today crowned with a record of nearly 1,700 performances in a little over five years, and has been seen by more than three and a half million people. In all this period of marred prosperity a Sunday performance has never been given. No play in the history of the stage world admits of the massive scenic setting that "Ben-Hur" does.

Reviewing "Ben-Hur" as a play, it is one of the most stirring and impressive stories ever given to the stage, and while the keenest admiration and astonishment have been manifested for the marvelous scenic and mechanical effects that are unfolded in its enactment, the impression that lasts and lives, and that has been responsible for the wonderful success secured, is the beautiful, fervent and highly dramatic story, so forcibly and truthfully told with its endowment of grand music supplied by Edgar Stillman Kelley.

The advance sale of seats open Thursday morning, March 16th, at nine o'clock. Manager John Macaney of Macaney's Theatre announces that all out-of-town orders, if accompanied by cash or money orders, will be filled before the regular box office sale opens. During the engagement of "Ben-Hur" in Louisville all railroads entering the city will make special excursion rates.

Monday, March 13, was the fourth anniversary of the great fire that devastated almost a dozen blocks of the residence and business section of Cloverport. Since the day of that fire not only has the burned district been largely rebuilt, but more industries have been added to those the town already had. Among the latter are another bank, a roofing tile factory, a cannery, a foundry and machine shop, an ice factory and a real estate and improvement company.

SON IS SEARCHING FOR AGED FATHER.

Frederick Gross, of Hardinsburg, After Being Nineteen Years Separated, Seeks His Parent.

A recent issue of the Louisville Herald contained the following:
"Filial attachment, undiminished by nineteen years' separation, brought Frederick Gross, twenty-four years old, from Hardinsburg, Ky., to Louisville yesterday in search of his aged father, for whom he desires to provide the comforts of a home in his declining years."

"Gross" mother died when he was a babe, and his father, poor and hampered by his lack of knowledge of the English language, could not provide for the child. He placed Frederick, his namesake, in the German Baptist Orphan Asylum, from which ten years later he was taken by Thomas Miller, who raised him as his own son. Frederick Gross is now engaged in business with his foster parent.

"From the time he placed Frederick in the orphanage the elder Gross drifted out of the life of his son and became only a memory as the boy grew to manhood. The latter knows little of his father, but now that he is in comfortable circumstances he has a longing to see his father again and know that in his old age he wants for nothing."

Mr. Gross was at Mattingly last week in search of his father but had no success. While at Mattingly he telephoned here and asked if his father was here, stating that he had heard that he had been the week before. His father's name is Frederick Gross, Sr.

Frederick Gross, Jr., was at Hardinsburg several weeks ago and it was understood at the time that he expected to enlist in the regular army. He has worked for Thos. Miller at his farm about four miles from Hardinsburg.

ALL SICK WOMEN

SHOULD READ MRS. FOX'S LETTER

In All Parts of the United States Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Effected Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually coming to light which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women absolutely free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham has for many years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women who to-day owe not only their health but even life to her helpful advice.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox, of 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I suffered for a long time with womb trouble, and finally was told by my physician that I had a tumor on the womb. I did not want to submit to an operation, so wrote you for advice. I received your literature and as you told me, and today I am completely cured. My doctor says the tumor has disappeared, and I am once more a well woman. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and to thousands of women has proved to be more precious than gold.

TOBACCO NEWS OF ALL SORTS.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS

At a regular meeting of the Louisville local union No. 1 of the American Society of Equity, which met Friday night, March 11, 1905, with a full attendance, resolutions were adopted denouncing the acts of John Parker, a member of above union, for having wilfully and knowingly, without the consent of the union, sold his tobacco for less than the price set by the society after said union had offered to assist him in many ways and his agreeing to and pledging his tobacco to the union to be sold with same and by a committee appointed by the union to dispose of as they saw proper. Therefore, we the undersigned committee appointed by the above union, adopt the following resolutions:

We deem said John Parker no longer worthy of being a member of this society and recommend that he be expelled from this union, and thereby barred from ever becoming a member of any local union of the American Society of Equity.

We therefore call on all liberty-loving men, who believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none, to stand by us and help us to keep the cause that is justly ours—one that is not denied any other class—and that is to be allowed to set price on the sweat of his brow.

We therefore caution all farmers and tillers of the soil to be on the alert; keep your eyes open, do business strictly with those who favor our cause. Too many who work against the interest of the farmer is his enemy. Treat him as such.

A note of warning is hereby given to all persons directly or indirectly connected with the union, or outsiders known as "scabs" who interfere with the workings of the union to its detriment, that all such persons should be considered as enemies to the cause and should be treated as such by all members of the A. S. of E.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to L. P. Deane Farming, Hancock Clarion and Haverhill Plaindealer for publication.

COMMITTEE:

A. H. Bruner, Walker Powers, Mike R. Engage, Orlie Powers, Morgan Trimble.

LETTER TO FARMERS

Much tobacco is being received at the Equity warehouse at Owensboro and farmers are very much interested in this method to secure better prices for their crops. The following open and timely letter will be of interest to the tobacco growers of this and surrounding counties:

To the Farmer of Davies and Adjoining Counties:

I, representing our committee appointed to have your tobacco handled to the best advantage, request your attention to the following synopsis of the contract made with Turner & Wood and C. N. Thompson. They propose to agree to receive and receive, furnish all labor and material used in the manipulation of your tobacco; prize in good coverage. In return they will deliver all tobacco delivered to them and received by your receivers this season, furnish all material necessary to rehandle your tobacco at a price of interest and give free storage to November 1, 1905, to the limit of their capacity. For this they charge $1.25 per hundred dry weight. In our opinion the value of the tobacco is improved far more than the cost of rehandling. The plan proposed to you above has advantages over any other that has been adopted by any farmers' organization, so far as I have seen.

The tobacco is under the complete control of the committee, which alone has the right to set the price and sell it, thus preventing the possibility of its falling into hands of any anti-social organization or speculator. It will be handled in the most approved manner and at the least cost possible consistent with good work. Those selected to manage and look after it have no interests to a rise but yours and are honest and incorruptible men. It offers to the farmers all the advantages heretofore enjoyed by the tobacco buyer. Tobacco, once, has no protection and but one market and in that market there is no competition; priced, it has access to the markets of the world, and can carry the protection by insurance.

"Every hoghead priced shortens the time when the manufacturer must have this tobacco; every load sold lengthens it."

In conclusion, permit me to assure you that you are welcome to visit the factory at any time and see our methods and that I will gladly answer all questions and do request you to contact with me before making other disposition of your crops.

Respectfully,

S. B. Lee.

Committee A. S. E.

LITTLE LEAF SHIPPED.

The Western Tobacco Journal of March 6 says:

"The calendar year of 1905 opened with generally light business in exports and imports of leaf and manufactured tobacco; the exception being good sized exports of domestic cigarette and plug tobacco. Transactions were in the majority of particulars behind the previous month and less than in January, 1904.

"Perhaps the most notable feature of the January transactions was the very small volume of shipments of domestic leaf tobacco, which were less than in the month of January, 1904 and scarcely more than half as large as in December, 1904. January of this year, as compared with January, 1904, there was a loss of 2,346,290 pounds or forty-six per cent., and with December a loss of 1,704,011 pounds, or loss of thirty-five per cent.

"This loss was due chiefly to the reduction of leaf exports to the United Kingdom.

"A comparison of the records for the expired portion of the current fiscal year with those for the same period in 1903-1904 shows a good increase in exports of domestic leaf, plug tobacco and cigarettes, and a large decrease in stems and trimmings and a moderate decrease in domestic cigars."

FARMERS PLEASED.

A dispatch from Nashville to a Louisville paper says: "Reports from the dark tobacco district of Kentucky and Tennessee show that the business affairs of the Farmers' Protective Association, which was formed for the purpose of inaugurating a fight for higher prices and against the tobacco trust are well in hand. The prizing homes are filling up with rapidly and the farmers are reported to be well pleased with the system adopted. Now that the season has fairly opened the tobacco is rushing into the various prizing homes, and those farmers who are in need of money immediately are being furnished with an advance of $4 per hundred of good tobacco, which in itself is about equal to the full price they received for their crops last season under the operations of the trust."

DEFENDS ITSELF.

In defense of itself when charged that it is a tobacco trust paper, the Western Tobacco Journal says: "The Western Tobacco Journal is a friend of trusts of any description, and no one can quote a line from its pages to anything different. It is just indifferent enough to care a little for one side of the question as the other. It endeavors to show wherein the farmers are making a mistake in prizing their tobacco. To be held for better prices later on, and its only question which true alone will solve whether farmers had better accept present prices as a certainty than prize and hold it for an uncertainty. This is the whole thing in a nutshell, and we take it for granted that the buyers of tobacco are as good as to be sure when the time comes as to be sure turned out to be right in the matter."

HAVE GREAT SURPLUS.

New York, March 10.—The total earnings of the companies which were merged into the American Tobacco Company for 1904 were reported at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company in Jersey City today to be $22,984,640.

The surplus for the year, after payment of dividends and interest, was $12,215,131.
